

Getting Started

Table of Contents

- Download a 30 day evaluation version
- How to access the ADSS Server manuals?
- Which OS privileges are required to install ADSS Server?
- How to obtain and install a commercial license of ADSS Server?

Download a 30 day evaluation version

Our digital signing solution & PKI products are available for you to test before purchase. Download a 30 days evaluation version of ADSS Server.

How to access the ADSS Server manuals?

- ADSS Server Admin Guide is available online
- ADSS Server Admin Guide is also available at ADSS Server Console homepage > Help > Online Manual and Offline Manual links
- ADSS Server Release Notes are available online
- ADSS Server Installation Guide is available under "[ADSS Server Installation]/docs/" directory
- ADSS Server Upgrade Information is available under "[ADSS Server Installation]/docs/" directory
- ADSS Server Developers Guide is available under "[ADSS Client SDK]/docs" directory
- ADSS Client SDK Release Notes are available under "[ADSS Client SDK]/docs" directory
- ADSS Client SDK Upgrade Instructions are available under "[ADSS Client SDK]/docs" directory
- ADSS Go>Sign Developers Guide is available under "[ADSS Client SDK]/GoSign/" directory

Which OS privileges are required to install ADSS Server?

To install ADSS Server, the following privileges of operating system are required:

On Windows:

"Administrator" privileges are required to create Windows Services. The services require no special privileges to run.

On Unix:

"Root" privileges are required to create Unix daemons. The daemons require no special privileges to run.

How to obtain and install a commercial license of ADSS Server?

To get a commercial ADSS Server license, contact your local re-seller or our sales team. See the licensing section to learn how to install the license.